Question 1
When choreographing your Unit 3 solo (Technique solo) you used the five movement creation processes. Identify and define three of these movement creation processes.
Question 2
When choreographing your Unit 4 solo (Composition solo) you used the structure of a unified composition.

a. List the parts that form the structure of a unified composition.

b. Briefly explain how the expressive intention in your Unit 4 solo created a unified composition.

Question 3
Imagine you are a dancer in a dance group and are looking forward to a well-known choreographer beginning to choreograph a new group dance work for your group to learn and perform. This choreographer creates difficult technical movement vocabulary and complex group choreography and you are aware that all the dancers in the group will need to work in a safe manner.

a. Outline three aspects of dance technique that all the dancers in the group may need to be aware of.

b. Explain why these three aspects of dance technique are important when dancing in a group.

3 + 6 = 9 marks
