PART B – Extended responses

Answer three of the following four questions.

Question 4
With close reference to the text below, write a commentary on the conflict between Jesus and ‘the Jews’.

John 5:9–18

RSV

9 And at once the man was healed, and he took up his pallet and walked. Now that day was the sabbath. 10 So the Jews said to the man who was cured, “It is the sabbath, it is not lawful for you to carry your pallet.” 11 But he answered them, “The man who healed me said to me, ‘Take up your pallet, and walk.’” 12 They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Take up your pallet, and walk?’” 13 Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place. 14 Afterward, Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, “See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse befall you.” 15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. 16 And this was why the Jews persecuted Jesus, because he did this on the sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, “My Father is working still, and I am working.” 18 This was why the Jews sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the sabbath but also called God his Father, making himself equal with God.

NRSV

9 At once the man was made well, and he took up his mat and began to walk. Now that day was a sabbath. 10 So the Jews said to the man who had been cured, “It is the sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your mat.” 11 But he answered them, “The man who made me well said to me, ‘Take up your mat and walk.’” 12 They asked him, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Take it up and walk’?” 13 Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had disappeared in the crowd that was there. 14 Later Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, “See, you have been made well! Do not sin any more, so that nothing worse happens to you.” 15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. 16 Therefore the Jews started persecuting Jesus, because he was doing such things on the sabbath. 17 But Jesus answered them, “My Father is still working, and I also am working.” 18 For this reason the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because he was not only breaking the sabbath, but was also calling God his own Father, thereby making himself equal to God.

PART C – Exegetical responses

Answer two of the following three questions.

The three texts below come from the passages for special study you have examined this year. Using exegetical skills you have developed, write an exegesis of two of the following passages. For each passage you should comment on
• context
• historical or sociocultural setting
• literary forms and/or techniques
• meaning and significance for the author’s community and, where appropriate,
• people, places and historical material of significance.
In the course of your exegesis you must comment on the meaning and significance of the highlighted words and phrases in the context of the passages.
John 5:1–9

RSV

1 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, in Hebrew called Beth-zatha, which has five porticoes. 3 In these lay a multitude of invalids, blind, lame, paralyzed. 5 One man was there, who had been ill for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been lying there a long time, he said to him, “Do you want to be healed?” 7 The sick man answered him, “Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is troubled, and while I am going another steps down before me.” 8 Jesus said to him, “Stand up, take your pallet, and walk.” 9 And at once the man was healed, and he took up his pallet and walked.

John 11:17–27

RSV

17Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. 18Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles off, 19and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. 20When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, while Mary sat in the house. 21Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22And even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you.” 23Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” 24Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.” 25Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, 26and whoever lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?” 27She said to him, “Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, he who is coming into the world.”

Question 10
John 13:31–38

RSV

31 When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and in him God is glorified; 32 if God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once. 33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, ‘Where I am going you cannot come.’ 34 A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; even as I have loved you, that you also love one another. 35 By this all men will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” 36 Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered, “Where I am going, you cannot follow me now; but you shall follow afterward.” 37 Peter said to him, “Lord, why cannot I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.” 38 Jesus answered, “Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the cock will not crow, till you have denied me three times.

NRSV

Ezekiel 34: 2–6

2“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord GOD: Ho, shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep? 3You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fatlings; but you do not feed the sheep. 4The weak you have not strengthened, the sick you have not healed, the crippled you have not bound up, the strayed you have not brought back, the lost you have not sought, and with force and harshness you have ruled them. 5So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food for all the wild beasts. 6My sheep were scattered, they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with none to search or seek for them.

Question 8

Jeremiah 2:1–13

1The word of the LORD came to me, saying, 2“Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD, I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness, in a land not sown. 3Israel was holy to the LORD, the first fruits of his harvest. All who ate of it became guilty; evil came upon them, says the LORD.” 4Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. 5Thus says the LORD: “What wrong did your fathers find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthlessness, and became worthless? 6They did not say, ‘Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that none passes through, where no man dwells?’ 7And I brought you into a plentiful land to enjoy its fruits and its good things. But when you came in you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. 8The priests did not say, ‘Where is the LORD?’ Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Ba’al, and went after things that do not profit. 9Therefore I still contend with you, says the LORD, and with your children’s children I will contend. 10For cross to the coasts of Cyprus and see, or send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has been such a thing. 11Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit. 12Be appalled, O heavens, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the LORD, for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

11Then the word of the LORD came to me: \textbf{Do you not know what these things mean?} Tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took her king and her princes and brought them to him to Babylon. \textbf{And he took one of the seed royal and made a covenant with him,} putting him under oath. (The chief men of the land he had taken away, \textbf{that the kingdom might be humble and not lift itself up, and that by keeping his covenant it might stand.}) \textbf{But he rebelled against him by sending ambassadors to Egypt,} that they might give him horses and a large army. \textbf{Can a man escape who does such things? Can he break the covenant and yet escape?} \textbf{As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant with him he broke, in Babylon he shall die. Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in war, when mounds are cast up and siege walls built to cut off many lives.} Because he despised the oath and broke the covenant, because he gave his hand and yet did all these things, he shall not escape. \textbf{Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:} As I live, surely my oath which he despised, and my covenant which he broke, \textbf{I will requite upon his head.} \textbf{I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there for the treason he has committed against me.} And all the pick of his troops shall fall by the sword, and the survivors shall be scattered to every wind; and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken.” 22\textbf{Thus says the Lord GOD:} “\textbf{I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of the cedar,} and will set it out; I will break off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I myself will plant it upon a high and lofty mountain; \textbf{on the mountain height of Israel will I plant it,} that it may bring forth boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar; and under it will dwell all kinds of beasts; in the shade of its branches birds of every sort will nest. \textbf{And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD bring low the high tree, and make high the low tree, dry up the green tree, and make the dry tree flourish. I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.”
Question 10

Ezekiel 34:10–25

10 Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and put a stop to their feeding the sheep; no longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, that they may not be food for them. 11 For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. 12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock when some of his sheep have been scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. 13 And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the fountains, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 I will feed them with good pasture, and upon the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on fat pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. 15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord GOD. 16 I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the crippled, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will watch over; I will feed them in justice. 17 As for you, my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, rams and he-goats. 18 Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture; and to drink of clear water, that you must foul the rest with your feet? 19 And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have fouled with your feet? 20 Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them: Behold, I, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. 21 Because you push with side and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad, 22 I will save my flock, they shall no longer be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. 23 And I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. 24 And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken. 25 I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild beasts from the land, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods.

In the course of your exegesis you must comment on the meaning and significance of the highlighted words and phrases in the context of the passages.
RSV

57 Now the time came for Elizabeth to be delivered, and she gave birth to a son. 58 And her neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. 59 And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they would have named him Zechariah after his father, 60 but his mother said, “Not so; he shall be called John.” 61 And they said to her, “None of your kindred is called by this name.” 62 Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him. 63 And he asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, “His name is John.” And they all marveled. 64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. 65 And fear came on all their neighbors. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea; 66 and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, “What then will this child be?” For the hand of the Lord was with him.

57 Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. 58 Her neighbours and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her. 59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the child, and they were going to name him Zechariah after his father. 60 But his mother said, “No; he is to be called John.” 61 They said to her, “None of your relatives has this name.” 62 Then they began motioning to his father to find out what name he wanted to give him. 63 He asked for a writing-tablet and wrote, “His name is John.” And all of them were amazed. 64 Immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue freed, and he began to speak, praising God. 65 Fear came over all their neighbours, and all these things were talked about throughout the entire hill country of Judea. 66 All who heard them pondered them and said, “What then will this child become?” For, indeed, the hand of the Lord was with him.
Question 9
Luke 18:35–43

RSV

35 As he drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging; 36 and hearing a multitude going by, he inquired what this meant. 37 They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.” 38 And he cried, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” 39 And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent; but he cried out all the more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” 40 And Jesus stopped, and commanded him to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, 41 “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me receive my sight.” 42 And Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has made you well.” 43 And immediately he received his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

NRSV

35 As he approached Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. 36 When he heard a crowd going by, he asked what was happening. 37 They told him, “Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.” 38 Then he shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!” 39 Those who were in front sternly ordered him to be quiet; but he shouted even more loudly, “Son of David, have mercy on me!” 40 Jesus stood still and ordered the man to be brought to him; and when he came near, he asked him, 41 “What do you want me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, let me receive my sight.” 42 And Jesus said to him, “Receive your sight; your faith has saved you.” 43 Immediately he regained his sight and followed him, glorifying God; and all the people, when they saw it, praised God.

36 As they were saying this, Jesus himself stood among them. 37 But they were startled and frightened, and supposed that they saw a spirit. 38 And he said to them, “Why are you troubled, and why do questionings rise in your hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; handle me, and see; for a spirit has not flesh and bones as you see that I have.” 41 And while they still disbelieved for joy, and wondered, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” 42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish, 43 and he took it and ate before them. 44 Then he said to them, “These are my words which I spoke to you, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled.” 45 Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, 46 and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, 47 and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be preached in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city, until you are clothed with power from on high.”

NRSV

36 While they were talking about this, Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you.” 37 They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. 38 He said to them, “Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39 Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have.” 40 And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, “Have you anything here to eat?” 42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish, 43 and he took it and ate in their presence. 44 Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” 45 Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, 46 and said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, 47 and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. 48 You are witnesses of these things. 49 And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

Question 4

With close reference to the text below, write a commentary explaining the Qur’anic notion of punishment for slander.

Surah 24:11–19

Muhammad Farooq-i-Azam Malik

Surely, those who concocted the slander (against ‘Aisha – a wife of the Prophet) are from a clique among you. Do not regard this incident as only an evil, for it also contains a good lesson for you. Whoever took any part in this sin, has earned his share accordingly, and the one who took on himself the leading part, shall have a terrible punishment. Why did not the believing men and believing women, when they heard of this slander, think well of their own people, and say: “This is clearly a false accusation?” Why did they not produce four witnesses? If they cannot produce the required witnesses, they are the liars in the sight of Allah. Were it not for the grace and mercy of Allah towards you in this world and the Hereafter, you would have been severely punished for your involvement in this scandal; when you were propagating it with your tongues, and uttering with your mouths that which you had no knowledge, you counted it a little thing, while it was a very serious offence in the sight of Allah. Why did you not, when you heard it, say: “It is not right for us to speak of this. Glory be to You, O Allah! This is a monstrous slander?” Allah admonishes you never to repeat a mistake like this, if you are true believers. Allah has made His revelations clear to you, Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise. Those who love to spread such slanders among the believers will have a painful punishment in this life and in the Hereafter. Allah knows and you do not know.

Taqiuddin

Verily! those who brought forth the slander (against ‘Âishah the wife of the Prophet) are a group among you. Consider it not a bad thing for you. Nay, it is good for you. To every man among them will be paid that which he had earned of the sin, and as for him among them who had the greater share therein, his will be a great torment. Why then, did not the believers, men and women, when you heard it (the slander), think good of their own people and say: “This (charge) is an obvious lie?” Why did they not produce four witnesses? Since they (the slanderers) have not produced witnesses! Then with Allâh they are the liars. Had it not been for the Grace of Allâh and His Mercy to you in this world and in the Hereafter, a great torment would have touched you for that whereof you had spoken. When you were propagating it with your tongues, and uttering with your mouths that which you had no knowledge, you counted it a little thing, while with Allâh it was very great. And why did you not, when you heard it, say: “It is not right for us to speak of this. Glorified are You (O Allâh)! This is a great lie.” Allah forbids you from it and warns you not to repeat the like of it forever, if you are believers. And Allâh makes the Ayât (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) plain to you, and Allâh is All-Knowing, All-Wise. Verily, those who like that (the crime of) illegal sexual intercourse should be propagated among those who believe, they will have a painful torment in this world and in the Hereafter. And Allâh knows and you know not.
Question 5
The Qur’an provides guidelines for a fair distribution of the property held by a deceased person (estate). With reference to the prescribed texts, explain how the estate is distributed. Comment on why the son and daughter do not appear to receive equal shares.

Question 7
The Qur’an refers to the Prophet Muhammad’s wives as ‘Mothers of Believers’. How does the Qur’an present the Mothers of Believers in the set texts? What is the significance of the concept of Mothers of Believers?

10 marks
The three texts below come from the chapters for special study you have examined this year. Using exegetical skills you have developed, write an exegesis of two of the following passages. For each passage you should comment on
• context
• historical or sociocultural setting
• literary form and/or techniques
• meaning and significance for the author’s community and, where appropriate
• people, places and historical material of significance.
In the course of your exegesis you must comment on the meaning and significance of the highlighted words and phrases in the context of the passage.
Question 8
Surah 68:1–16

Muhammad Farooq-i-Azam Malik

Nûn. By the pen and what they write.¹ By the grace of your Rabb you are not a madman,² and you shall have a never ending reward.³ You are of the highest noble character.⁴ Soon you will see - as they will see⁵ - which of you is afflicted with madness.⁶ Surely, it is your Rabb Who knows those who have strayed from His Way, as He knows best those who are rightly guided.⁷ So do not yield to the unbelievers.⁸ They desire you to compromise a little, so they too would compromise.⁹ Neither yield to any oathmonger,¹⁰ mischief making slanderer,¹¹ opponent of good, transgressor, sinful,¹² wicked oppressor, and above all, ignoble by birth,¹³ though he be possessing wealth and children.¹⁴ When Our revelations are recited to him, he says: “They are nothing but the tales of the ancients.”¹⁵

Soon We shall brand him on the snout.¹⁶

Taqiuddin

¹Nûn. [These letters (Nûn, etc.) are one of the miracles of the Qur’ân, and none but Allâh (Alone) knows their meanings]. By the pen and by what they (the angels) write (in the Records of men). ²You (O Muhammad), by the Grace of your Lord, are not mad.³And Verily, for you (O Muhammad) will be an endless reward. ⁴And Verily, you (O Muhammad) are on an exalted (standard of) character.⁵You will see, and they will see, ⁶Which of you is afflicted with madness.⁷Verily, your Lord is the Best Knower of him who has gone astray from His Path, and He is the Best Knower of those who are guided.⁸So (O Muhammad) obey you not the deniers [(of Islâmic Monotheism — those who deny the Verses of Allâh), the Oneness of Allâh, and the Messengership of Muhammad] ⁹They wish that you should compromise (in religion out of courtesy) with them: so they (too) would compromise with you.¹⁰And (O Muhammad) obey you not everyone Hallâf Mahîn (the one who swears much and is a liar or is worthless).¹¹A slanderer, going about with calumnies,¹²Hinderer of the good, transgressor, sinful,¹³Cruel, and moreover base-born (of illegitimate birth).¹⁴(He was so) because he had wealth and children.¹⁵When Our Verses (of the Qur’ân) are recited to him, he says: “Tales of the men of old!”¹⁶We shall brand him on the snout (nose)!
Allah has created from water every living creature: of them there are some that creep upon their bellies, some that walk on two legs, and yet, some that walk on four; Allah creates what He pleases; surely, Allah has power over everything. We have indeed sent down very clear revelations, and Allah guides to the Right Way whom He pleases. They say: “We believe in Allah and the Rasool and we obey,” but no sooner do they utter these words than some of them turn their backs; these are no believers. When such people are called to Allah and His Rasool that He may judge between them, behold! A party of them declines to come. However, if they have the truth on their side, they come to him voluntarily. Is there a disease in their hearts? Or do they doubt or fear that Allah and His Messenger will deny them justice. Nay! In fact, they are the ones who are the wrongdoers. The response of the true believers, when they are called to Allah (His Words, the Qur’ân) and His Messenger, to judge between them, is only to say: “We hear and we obey.” Such are the ones who will attain felicity. Only those who obey Allah and His Rasool, have fear of Allah and do good deeds, are the ones who will be the successful.
Question 10
Surah 4:5–10

Muhammad Farooq-i-Azam Malik

Do not entrust your property which Allah has made a means of support for your family, to feebleminded people for investment in business, however, provide such people with food and clothing, speak to them nicely and give them good advice.\(^5\) Observe the orphans through testing their abilities until they reach the age of marriage, then if you find them capable of sound judgment, hand over to them their property; and do not consume it wastefully in haste lest they grow up and demand it. If the guardian is well-off, he should not take compensation from the orphan’s property, but if he is poor let him take a just and reasonable remuneration. When you hand over their property to them, call in some witnesses; even though Allah is sufficient in taking the accountability.\(^6\)

Men will have a share in what their parents and their near relatives leave; and women will have a share in what their parents and their near relatives leave: whether it be a small or large, they shall be legally entitled to their shares.\(^7\) If the relatives, orphans or needy are present at the time of the division, give them something out of it, and speak to them kind words.\(^8\) Let those (disposing of an estate) have the same fear in their minds as they would have for their own if they were to leave a helpless children behind: they should, therefore, fear Allah and speak for justice.\(^9\) In fact, those who misappropriate the property of orphans unjustly, swallow but fire into their bellies; they will soon be cast into the blazing fire!\(^10\)

Taqiuddin

\(^5\)And give not to the foolish your property which Allâh has made a means of support for you, but feed and clothe them therewith, and speak to them words of kindness and justice.

\(^6\)And try the orphans (as regards their intelligence) until they reach the age of marriage; if then you find sound judgement in them, release their property to them, but consume it not wastefully and hastily, fearing that they should grow up, and whoever (amongst guardians) is rich, he should take no wages, but if he is poor, let him have for himself what is just and reasonable (according to his labour). And when you release their property to them, take witness in their presence; and Allâh is All-Sufficient in taking account.\(^7\)There is a share for men and a share for women from what is left by parents and those nearest related, whether the property be small or large - a legal share.\(^8\)And when the relatives and the orphans and Al-Masâkîn (the needy) are present at the time of division, give them out of the property, and speak to them words of kindness and justice.\(^9\)And let those (executors and guardians) have the same fear in their minds as they would have for their own, if they had left weak offspring behind. So let them fear Allâh and speak right words.\(^10\)Verily, those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans, they eat up only fire into their bellies, and they will be burnt in the blazing Fire!
